WAGGAMAN DIES IN HUMBLE HOME

Former Treasurer of Catholic University Passes Away After Long Illness.

WIDELY KNOWN IN COUNTRY

Had Been Living for Number of Months on Farm Near Annapolis.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, June 27.-Word been received here that Thomes E. Waggamen, of this city, former treasurer of $4,000,000 about a year ago, died today on a farm near Annapolis, Md., where en for a number of months. The cause of death was cancer of the face. He was sixty-nine years of age.

Thomas Ennells Waggaman began his anomas Ennais Waggaman began his business life in this city as a collector of bad bills, with nothing but his energy as his capital, and he made a success of this line of work. He next took up the collection of rents, and, passing from that, drifted into the real estate business

Failure Followed Success.

His success at this was so phenomenal, a gigantic, that when he failed, two ears ago, his Prabilities were more ann $4,000,000, his real estate holdings ere the largest held by any man in the strict of Columbia, and, even the day fore he made his assignment, his credit et of Columbia, and, even the use he made his assignment, his credit never questioned, in he did fail, he ascribed the colto the fact that he was land poor, id immense tracts of land insice y and in the suburbs, and on all e continually paid interest. White d this large interest, the value of in Washington remained stationed he did not realize on his holdas he had thought he waige do. 1, up to the very last, he hoped and onfident that the land values in ngton would go up so that he realize the returns that he had on.

might realize the returns that the had saved from the wreck of his fortunes not a cent for himself, for wife, or for his children. He had spent in seclusions his last days, in a plain country house on the banks of South River, near Chesaman, providing all the needs of life for him and his family.

Married Three Times.

omas E. Waggaman was married a times, and had twenty-two children, an of whom now live. His widow, f whom now live. His widow, of six children, was a Miss Wagn Now Orleans, a distant cousin raggaman.

an Old Maryland Family.

Waggaman family figured con musty in the annals of Marylan than 150 years ago, at which tim tors had so long known.

Mr. Waggaman died in his sixty-sixti

Cigarette Order Denied. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GANOKE, VA., June 27.—Norfolk and setern officials say no order has been

T. C. MILLER,

Death of the Many Years Treasurer of Wytheville. Times-Dispatch.

at his home mear town ast evening about of o'clock, aged sixty-eight years. Mr. Miller had been in town attending to his during the day i. Jir usual word neatin, and returned home in the atterlittle badly. He retired about 8 o'clock, and when his wife went into the room an hour after, she found her husband dead. The physicians pronounced it heart-failure. Mr. Miller moved to Wythe-wille many years ago and has been continuously elected treasurer of town for eighteen or twenty years. During the war, he was a member of Danco's battery froil Powhatan county, being a relative of Major Dance and cousin of the Judgo Thomas Miller, of Powhatan.

He leaves, surviving him, hesdes his widow, five sons and two daughters. Funeral services at Presbyterian Church tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock, and interment at East End Cemetery.

DEAD IN HIS CHAIR.

Sudden Demise of Mr. Benjamin

J. Meredith.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WILCOX WHARF, VA., June 27.—Mr.

Benjamin J. Meredith died suddenly yesmarking at his home, "River Benjamin J. Meredith died suddenly yesterday morning at his home, "River Edge," in this county, Mrs. Meredith, in entering the house from the yard, found her husband sitting in a chair dead, where he had been just a few minutes before in the act of lighting his pipe. Mr. Meredith was associated with Mr. Robert Bradley, an extensive owner of thoroughbred horses.

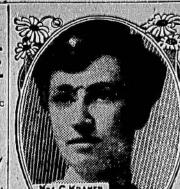

OBITUARY.

Funeral of Mr. Blair. The funeral of Mr. Charles Irvins Blair, who died Tuesday afternoon, at

YOU NEED

AMMONIA WASHING POWDER Whitens and Cleans--Does Not Injure.

GAVES TIME. SAVES WORK, Universal Housefurnishing Coupon in every package.

THE RIGHT MEDICINE FOR PELVIC TROUBLES FOUND IN PE-RU-NA.

MRS. CAROLINE KRAMER, Fort Collins, Col., writes:

"The majority of women who are suffering from disordered periods and other pelvic troubles have such strong faith in doctors that they allow them to experiment on them for kidney, liver or stomach troubles until they become completely discouraged and their money is

was called to Peruna.
"I hardly dared believe that at last had found the right medicine, but as kept on using it and was finally cured I could only thank God and take cour take place this morning at 10 o'clock.

The pall-bearers are as follows: Messrs.
Frank O'Ferrall, Roy Jones, Thomas
Brockenbrough, James K. Dunlop, Bidney
Swan, B. C. Wherry, Guy Binford and
E. A. Baughman, Jr.

Mrs. Georgiana E. Tettway.

Funeral of Mrs. Houston. The funeral of Mrs. P. B. Houston, who died at 7 o'clocks Monday evening in Keysville, took places at 5 o'clock yee-terday evening, the linterment, heing made in Hollywood.

Percy Dodge

Percy Dodge.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MANASSAS, VA. June 27.-Percy, youngest son of Mr. H. P. Dodge, postmaster at this place, died in Washington city this morning about 2 oclock of appendicitis. He had been sick since last saturday, and last night was carried by Dr. Iden, a local physician. to Washington for an operation, Death, resulted thortty after the operation had been perpermed. The decessee and an in young man.

L. C. Sale.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

L. U. Sale.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FikiderickSburg, va. June 7.—L.

C. Sale, of Caroline county, who was brought to the Mary Washington Hospital here inst Sunday for treatment, died at that institution last night. He was thirty years old, and was a prominent merchant of Guiney's. His widow and three children survive him. The remains will be interred here.

Mrs. N. B. Lawrence.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., June 7.--Mrs.

Nellie Burr Lawrence died at her home
n Prince George county about 2 o'clock his morning. Mrs. Lawrence was the wife of W. F. Lawrence, and the daughen of the late David I. Burr, of Richmond. She was fifty-five years old. The funeral will take place from St. Joseph's

Catholic Church here to-morrow at 12:33

yelock, and the interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond.

Mrs. Sallie E Gardland.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., June 27.—Mrs. Sallio F. Gardland, died to-night from Bright's DEATHS.

"My nerves are unstrung; the tension is great. I will not be examined to-day." "My nerves are unstruing the tensor is great. I will not be examined to-day."

Pressed for a warer explanation of his refusal, he said: "I haven't any; I have none at all. Put it down to obstinacy, if you wish."

He had promised Mr. Olcott before the examiners met to submit to the examination. examination

Very Obstinate.

vamination.

Very Obstinate.

"This refusal will hurt you." Mr Olcott is said to have pleaded.

"I don't care," replied Thaw. "Nothing but absolute force will get me to allow myself to be examined, or to say anything to-day. I think I first ought to talk with Dr. Hamilton, and then have a talk with Mr. Delafield. Later I will tell you whether I will talk with the crimmittee or not."

He was then taken back to his cell.

Mr. Olcott said later that he was unable to account for Thaw's attitude and that he could only attribute it to unaccountable obstinacy. As his counsel, he said, he had no objection to Thaw's answering any of the questions addressed to him by the physicians.

After the allenists had departed Mrs. Thaw was permitted to see her husband for the first time since his arrest. She came to the Tombs in a carriage accompanied by her husband's prother. Josiah C. Thaw. The meeting between husband and wife was affectionate and they remained together talking is an undertone for nearly an hour. Thaw also received a visit from his sister, Mrs. George C. Carnegie, and Clifford W. Hartridge, of Pittsburg.

Before visiting the Tombs, Mrs. Thaw had a long conference with forms; Judge Olcott and Frederick Delafield, at which it is believed that the line of defence was discussed.

Letters from White.

When asked about the letters from hite which Mrs. Thaw yesterday turned her to Mr. Delafield, Mr. Olcott said Important Witness.

vas announced at the office of the

the Cafe Martin a few hours before he was shot.

According to the witness, whose name is concealed for the present, he heard the remarks of White, who was seated two or three tables away, and evidently was not whispering. All that time Mr. and Mrs. Thaw were in the cafe dining. It is believed that this witness will not appear before the coroner, but that he will be reserved for the trial.

Another important witness who was examined by Mr. Garvin to-day was Nelly Leahigh, Mrs. Thaw's maid.

The funeral of Mr. White will take place to-morrow from his late summer residence at St. James, L. I.

SAYS THAW MET WHITE IN PARIS

New York Man Will Tell Story to the Jury When Trial is Called.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, June 27 .- When Harry he parents. In Henrice, county, June 18 per 18 per

THE ABODE OF THE MODE.

'Comfy'' Clothes

"Comfy" Tropical Suits, with a slice from weight and price, but none from style and quality—$10 to

"Comfy" Straws, in soft Panama and like shapes that are muss-proof—$1 to

"Comfy" Knee Drawers, for those who like to "leg it" at their ease-50c to $1

"Comfy" Undershirts without sleeves. They'll let your muscles spread themselves-50c to $1.

"Comfy" Outing Shirts that are made right, out-and-in and in-and-out-$1 to $2.50. "Comfy" Ties, that shrink it-25c to $1. "Comfy" Pajamas, to lull you to pleasant dreams-$1 to $5.

neither from the tub nor in

And a "comfy" store, where you're free to come and go as though you

Jacobs & Levy.

him with whom she had been talking. With a flood of tears, the story runs, Mrs. Thaw said the stranger was Stanford White, and that he had sent her a note met while Mrs. Thaw was with her hus band. The former actress when she sav White became very pale and agitated

RELATIVES ALL STAND BY THAW

Will Spend Entire Fortune of Forty Million Dollars to Clear Him if Necessary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PITTSBURG, PA., June 27.—The last of the Thaw relatives, headed by Banjamin, Thaw, a half-brother of Harry K.
Thaw, left for New York at noon to-day to assist in trying to clear up the trouble into which young Thaw has plunged himself.

The party left well satisfied that Harry. Thaw was more sinned against than sinning. There was a conference between members of the family and attorneys here before the start was made for New York, and later it was announced that the Thaw family would spend every cent of the $40,000,000 estate, if necessary to clear the skirts of the young man who killed Stanford White the New York architect.

there, to meet Mrs. Wm. Thaw on her arrival at Liverpool and consult with her regarding the defense. Mrs. Thaw is expected to land not later than Saturday, and it is thought Watson will be heard from at New York within a few hours after the steamer touches.

Mr. Watson is perhaps one of the best-

GRASS WIDOWERS' TRAIN FROM WAYNESBORO, VIA C. & O. RY., EVERY MONDAY MORNING.

Commencing Monday, July 2d, and continuing each Monday thereafter until September 10th, special train will leave Waynesboro at 6:00 A. M., arriving Richmond 9:45 A. M., stopping at all stations to take on passengers.

Locate your family for the summer along the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and spend Sunday with them in the mountains, One fare for the round trip, plus twenty-five cents, on Saturdays; tickets good until the Monday following.

known altorneys in the country. He gained famid in passing on the Alaskian boundary claims with Senator P. U. Knox, and also won some large traction cases in Unicago recently. He was discussed as a gubernatorial possibility on the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania recently, but declined to run.

TRAGEDY RECALLS THE FISK SHOOTING

Stoke's Bloody Deed in New York Hotel, Years Ago, Was Also Due to a Woman.

Due to a Woman.

NEW YORK, June 27.—The murder of Stanford White by Harry Kendal Thaw has a parallel in the shooting of James Fisk, Jr., by Edwin Btokes, on the stairway of the old Grand Central Hotel, now the Broadway Central, on January 5, 1872. The two men were widely known in the city, and their quarrel arose over a woman. Stokes was freed on the ground that he had shot Fisk in seit-defense.

Jim Fisk, as he was called, had been a lion tamer and peddler before he went into business in New York, where he broke into the board of the Eric Railroad and became a comrade of Jay Gould. Together they put down Eric stock. In 1860 Fisk cornered the gold market, running gold-up, to 160. When President Grant knocked the bottom out of the market Fisk repudlated all the bargains he had made for the sale of gold. He escaped the penalty of this action through his relations with the Tweed ring, which was then in control of the city government. It was business that first brought Fisk and Stokes together. Stokes was interested in an oil company that furnished oil to the Eric.

The two men became friends, and Fisk invited the younger man't to dine at the famous house, No. 321 West Twenty-third Street, where the Prince of Eric had set up an establishment for Josie Mansfield, a woman with whom he was deeply infatuated. It was not long before the woman began to show a liking for Stokes. Fisk realized the situation, but he evidentity still cared for and tried to win her back. But his efforts were in vain.

Became Enemies.

Became Enemies.

Became Enemies.

The friends became enemies and fought in business. Fisk withdrew the Erie's patronage from the oil company, and Stokes lost heavily. Each man had the other arrested in turn. Josie Mansfield gave her new lover the old one's letters, which he threatened to publish. Fisk bought them back for $10,000. Then the Mansfield woman began a suit against Fisk.

Fisk.
On the morning of the day when the shooting occurred there was a hearing of this fast suit in Yorkville Court. Stokes accompanied the woman. Under the questioning of Fisk's lawyers, she Stokes accompanied the woman. Under the questioning of Fisk's lawyers, she broke down and cried.

This aroused her admirer to great anger. Later he went to her house, and it is said that a messenger brought the news that Fisk had procured a warrant for the arrest of both of them. Stokes evidently, saw that the fight was going against him. He went in search of Fisk to the Grand Central Hotel, and awaited his arrival at the head of the stairs.

Fisk passed in at the women's entrance and started to go upstairs. Just above the middle landing he looked up and, saw Stokes resting the barrel of a pictol on the newel post above him. Two shots followed, and Fisk fell to the ground. Stokes threw his gun into the ladies' parlor, ran down another stairway and started to leave through the barber shop of the hotel. There he was captured.

Stokes was tried and sentenced to death. He obtained a new trial and was acquitted. He died only a few years ago the wansfield went to Paris. Nineteen years later she married a rich young man named Read. Later they separated, and seven years ago the woman was stricken with paralysis. Now she, too, is dead.

WHITE DEFENDED George W. Lederer Speaks of His

Interest in Miss Nesbit. CHICAGO, ILL., June 27.—George W. Lederer, manager of the Colonial Theatre in this city, who was the employer of Mrs. That when as Evelyn Nesbit she went on the stage under his management, said to-day that he believed that the interest taken in her career by White was merely that of a good friend who desired to see her advanced in her profession.

ELEGANT WEDDING.

Miss Helen Train Richardson Bride of Mr. C. A. Moore.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., June 27.—The Methodist Episcopal Church, of this place, was the scene of a beautiful marriage at six o'clock this afternoom, when Miss Helen Train Richardson, of this place, became the bride of Mr. Charles Aurelius Moore, of Durham, N. C., Rev. B. M. Beckham, the bride's pastor, officialing, Miss Janie Richardson, the bride's sister, and Miss Helen Graham Herrink, of Fluvanna county, the bride's sister, and Miss Helen Graham Herrink, of Fluvanna county, the bride's cousin, were mides of honor, while Mr. Robert Moore, of Oxford, N. C., a brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The ushers were William Richardson, of Lawrenceville; Willie Moore, of Durham; R. A. Richardson, W. A. Lawson, W. B. Lawson and David Traynham, of South Boston. The church had been decorated for the occasion, with palms, ferns and cut flowers, and candelabras were used. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendleshon's wedding march, and the crit was made to the time of Lohengrin's march, beautifully rendered by Mrs. R. W. Lawson. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. J. Lawson Richardson, of Lynchburg.

The bride wore a handsome tailormade Panama, and canded braws by her brother, Mr. J. Lawson Richardson, of Lynchburg white point de esprit over green chiffon, with picture hat to match, while Miss Herrink wore white point de esprit over kreen chiffon, with picture hat to match, while Miss Herrink wore white point de esprit over kreen chiffon, with picture hat to match, both holding bride's maid's pink roses.

The bride is the attractive and most accomplished duighter of Mr. W. E. Richardson, of this place, and has a bost of friends, while the groom is a popular business man of Duhmm. The bride is the attractive and most accomplished duighter of Mr. W. E. Richardson, of this place, and has a bost of friends, while the groom is a popular business man of Duhmm. The bride is the attractive and most accomplished duighter of Mr. W. E. Richardson, of this place and has a bost of Damage Verdicts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TAZEWPLL, VA., June 37.—Mrs. Chas.
F. Brown was given a verdict of $25 in the Circuit Court here to-day against the Norfolk & Western for damages done to the grass on her farm, near Witten's Mills. The plaintiff avowed that ten acres of blue grass was destroyed by fire started by sparks from a railroad engine. The suit was for $50.
Fitty dollars' damages was awarded to C. E. Flummer against the Norfolk & Western for being carried a mille past her station, Flat Top, yards while a passenger on the train a few months ago. The suit was for $100.

A motion to set aside the verdict of $5,00, returned by a jury in the case of Dean's administrative against, the Norfolk & Western, was overruled by the court to-day, and judgment granted, but ninety days was given to sllow

Special Rates on the Trunk Line

$7.00 to $9.50

all sizes, $2.00 to $3.25.

Brass-Trimmed Suit Cases, this sale, $2.00.
Solid Leather Suit Cases, $5.00 to $7.50.

Large assortment of all kinds of Trunks. Come in some time and let us show you this, Automatic Tray Trunk of ours.

to allow defense counsel to prepare paper to present to Supreme Court to secure writ of error.

Farmer Under Arrest. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., June 27.—
Charged with criminal assault upon a thirteen-year-old girl, Harry Stewart, a young farmer of hear Brucctown, was lodged in jail here to-day, awaiting the action of the grand juryon.

The girl, Ethel Owens, was a domestic the Break's house.

Charged with criminal assault upon a thirteen-year-old girl. Harry Stewart, a young farmer of near Brucctown, was jodgeded in jail here to-day, awaiting the action of the grand juryn.

The girl. Ethel Owens, was a domestic at Stewart's house.

Killed Woman; Shot Himself.

(By Associated Press.)

ATLANTA, GA., June 27.—Specials from Roswell, GL., say; John A. Grimes, a well-to-do farmer, aged 22 years, shot and instantly killed Mrs Eva McGina, a young widow at her home, near Roswell, to-day. Jealous Infatuation is said to have been the cause of the crime, Grimes flicted only a slight wound. He gave

CHURCH DEDICATED.

Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher Assists

in Freeing Church of Debt.

For....

Brass Beds, &c.

Anything! Anything!

in Furniture and Floor Coverings

....CALL AT....

Sydnor & Hundley, Inc.

See our Refrigerators, Mattings, Summer Furniture and Children's Carriages. June brides will find a great selection of Suits, Ainslie Carriage Co.

8-10-12 South 8th Street, NEAR MAIN.

Showrooms Street Floo

PARK WAGONS, LADIES' PHAETONS, TWO AND FOUR-PASSENGER

MORNING WAGONS, IN FRENCH CANE OR WOOD PANELS, CUT-UNDER RUNABOUTS.

and numerous other up-to-date Vehicles, that range in price from the highest grade manufactured to the fully guaranteed medium-priced Vehicle. REMEMBER THE NEW LOCATION,

8-10-12 South 8th Street, Near Main

If You Are Interested in Roofing, You Should Investigate the Merits of

...VULCANITE... Ready Roofing.

THE MOST PRACTICAL ON THE MARKET. For prices and further information call on Watkins-Cottrell Company, SOUTHERN AGENTS, RICHMOND, VA.

Roses, Cut Flowers, Designs. Largest Stock.

Hammond. Florist,

109 East Broad Street.